

Brewer Broadcasting of Chattanooga, Inc is an Equal Opportunity Employer

I. General Policy

Brewer Broadcasting of Chattanooga, Inc. has a policy to afford equal employment opportunity to all qualified individuals without regard to race, color, religion, national origin or sex, in all personnel actions including recruitment, evaluation, selection, promotion, compensation, training, and termination.

It will also be our policy to promote the realization of equal employment opportunity through a positive, continuing program of specific practices designed to insure the full realization of equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, religion, national origin or sex.

To make this policy effective, and to insure conformance with the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communication Commission, we have adopted an Equal Employment Opportunity Program which includes the following elements:

II. Responsibility for implementation

James L Brewer, Sr is responsible for implementing Brewer Broadcasting's EEO program. It will also be the responsibility of all persons making employment decisions with respect to the recruitment, evaluation, selection, promotion, compensation, training, and termination of employees to ensure that our policy and program is adhered to and that no person is discriminated against in employment because of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex.

III. Policy dissemination

To ensure that all members of the staff are cognizant of our equal employment opportunity policy and their individual responsibilities in carrying out this policy, the following efforts will be made:

The company's employment application forms will contain a notice informing prospective employees that discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex is prohibited and that they may notify the appropriate local, State, or Federal agency if they believe they have been the victims of discrimination.

Appropriate notices will be posted informing applicants and employees that the station is an equal opportunity employer and of their right to notify an appropriate local, State or Federal agency if they believe they have been the victims of discrimination.

In any advertising for job openings the station will include a notice informing prospective employees that discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin or sex is prohibited, and that we are an Equal Opportunity Employer.

7. Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives. List and briefly describe the Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives undertaken during the period covered by this Report.

(a) Initiative: Journalism Internship Program - UTC

We had 4 interns in our Journalism program with UTC during the year. Interns were taught basic journalism skills including story research, interview and writing. They also assisted with developing and maintaining arts and music calendars and writing on various event and issues in the community. They were supervised by Gary Poole.

(b) Initiative: Radio Internship Program

We had 3 Interns from Boston College, Chattanooga State and UTC. Each intern participates in outside events such as remote and special events. They are taught audio production, script writing and some actual commercial voice work. This program is a part of their course curriculum. They were supervised by Jay Holloway.

(c) Initiative: Job Fair

Cancelled due to Social Distancing for CoVid 19

(d) Initiative: Teen Reporters

Every Saturday morning from 9-11am we have a group of students from 15 schools that come to our studios and learn the fundamentals of broadcasting as well as record reports on what is happening at their schools. Those are then aired the upcoming week. This program is overseen by Keith Landecker.
